March seventh, 1935
Scrapps College
Charmant

My dear Mr. and Mrs. Bonsels, Miss Klett and I regretted deeply that Old Lady Flu has deprived us of the pleasure of your company. We both hope, however, that the spell of this undesirable Lady will be shortlived and that your visit to Scrapps is only postponed. Ever since our visit at the hospitable home of Dr. Gysling I was eager to have you come to Scripps and to meet also some of the Americans, who are far from being "Hollywood".

Consequently my best friend, Mrs. Morgan Padelford, the young wife of a young and promising painter, will feel greatly honored to have you at the villa of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hawkes, at 285 North San Rafael, in Pasadena (Phone: Colorado: 33 77). The Father is the President of one of the greatest industries.
He is of the old school of "rugged Individualism", and you will be able, undoubtedly, to contrast the difference between the old and the young generation of America. I am sure Mrs.

Padelford will send the car to fetch you, or if you were visiting Scripps at that time you will be taken care of at this end.

At any rate the dinner will be in your honour, so that you can meet another set of people and get another glimpse of American life. Mrs. Padelford will write to you soon, but I thought of explaining to you the circumstances, so that you will not be started.

I hesitated to give you a ring as telephonic connections are not always very satisfactory, and it might have been difficult to explain all these details.

I sincerely hope that you might be free for March the 22nd, on Friday night. Mrs. Padelford suggested either the 15th or the 29th of March, but I think you have a lecture which might make the 22nd a more convenient date.

Will you be so kind as to let me know which is the date of your choice, so that Mrs. Padelford can write to you officially, and send her invitations to the others in our tree?

I am sure you would be greatly interested not only in the beautiful setting of a lovely home, but chiefly in the charming hostess, her family and her friends.

I am looking forward to seeing you not only at Scipps but also at
"Villa Falconer", the home of my friend.

With best wishes for your prompt recovery,

Most sincerely yours,

Christine Galtz
