Robert J. McKeever Esq.

Attorney at Law

Port Chester N.Y.

Dear Mister McKeever.

We heard with great joy that you thought of us on Christmas in such a friendly way. Your package will enjoy everybody in our Ambach home and J myself was glad before all, that we still are kept in your memory.

In the past months J have been anxious and sad, that no answer would come on my letters in which J requested and begged you to decide about my violins, J confided you trustfully then in your hands. As things to day are situated J see myself forced to beg you now for a decision, if you want to buy one of the instruments or both. J put the matter into the hands of my dear old friend Miss Valerie Krauss:

Miss Valerie Krauss
c/o William Jordan,
1095 Petersons Sub. Drive
Pewaukee Wisconsin. U.S.A.

and Professor Werner F. Leopold
1409 Rosalie Street
Evanston Illinois. U.S.A.

and beg you, when they personally or through someone in their charge will come to call on you, to deliver them the violins.

J have allready named you the prices that are for italian instruments as modest as possible. It is for the Testore 4000.-DMark and for the Varotti 1500.-DMark. J know that this sums are for America much too low and that for both instruments at this time in the United States much higher prices could be reached, but to you J should not like to name another price than those above.

J fled here to the south of Switzerland away from the moist climat of our lake of Starnberg, because my doctors wanted it in order to restore my bad health. Would you please use the following adress of my wifes mother for your answer: Waldemar Bonsels, c/o

Mrs. J. L. Bachofen
138 Neubadstrasse
Basel. Switzerland.

J would be very thankfull, if you would immediately procure to me certainty about your decision. Miss Valerie Krauss or Professor Werner F. Leopold in Evanston will be so kind to call an you in behave of the receprion either of the violins or the money.

With the kindest greetings and best wishes for you and your family for the New Year

J remain allways truly yours
