Mr. William M. French
Professor of Education
Muhlenberg College
Allentown, Penn.

Dear Professor French,-

As we left California more than three years ago - which you, of course, could not have known - your letter of January 26th went utterly astray and has in some mysterious way reached me just now.

Almost needless to say I should be very glad to have you used the smaller portions you quote from my book
"School for Barbarians". Since the firm went out of business, I am practically certain that the copyright is mine;
however, the excerpts you suggest are so brief that the question either of copyright or of "permission" does not, I should think, enter at all.

Let me hope that this late reply will yet enable you to do as you wished.

With best thanks for your interest,

yours very sincerely

ERIKA MANN
