country is the freedom of speech still possible? - and when I ask this, I refer not only to Fascist countries, but also to those, with the still commended "liberal." Freedom of speech in Europe is fast becoming a rather dubious matter.... But, let us not hasten too much ~~to~~ ^{be} ~~rightly~~ about the difficulties of our life, as now, in Europe. You ~~have~~ ~~these~~ heard a great deal about these difficulties, and, I am sure, you have your ^{own} difficulties, yourself, even ^{here} in America. The life of an employer ~~is~~ ^{is} never a very ~~to~~ simple ^{one}. I think, we just must stand it, and ~~just~~ ^{must} ~~live~~ ^{live} it - ~~how~~ ^{like} it is - , and ~~be~~ ^{must} ~~be~~ ^{live} happy, that we ~~have~~ ^{have} ~~to~~ ^{to} stand it ~~there~~ ^{along}

Dear friends, ladies and gentlemen -

I will make it short, and I ~~do~~ do not want to ^(a long time) bore you with my English pronunciation. But I simply have to say: that I am very happy - really and sincerely happy - to be in this country, and, especially, to to be here, with my American colleagues. I think, America is a grand country, and I feel, it must be a grand thing to be an American writer - which means: to write, to work for this ~~big~~ great American nation. not only the biggest public of the world, but also ~~the~~ I can have here, ~~the~~ ~~the~~ another, extremely important thing: the freedom of speech. In which European
