Madame Sweetie: Today was a great day - I received, first, your cable; ~~from~~ second, your (13th!) letter; third, a letter from E - only 8 days old! So I can congratulate myself - and, moreover, have to extend my congratulations to Father-Magician and you. In fact, twofold congratulations are due: on the birth of la piccola Nica (although I, too, would have preferred a Nicco); and on the appearance of il piccolo Giuseppe in the Book of the Monte Carlo. So he will really be the provider, of one starving family at least, and you can afford the green little furboa which you wanted ~~E~~ so badly. But quite apart from such materialistic considerations, I think it's a nice, encouraging omen. - Hope you won't have too much trouble with my typewriter.
Am looking forward to your 13 belated letters and the numerous favours.
Faithfully - affectionately
K.
