Ma chère et vivante :

P.S. Don't forget to tell me all about the financial transactions going on between you and Jean Miss Goodman!

This is just a postscriptum to the note I sent you the other day (and which you should already have received: although I have my doubts whether it will ever reach you ...). It seems that the address indicated above, is rather better than the one I wrote you last time. So if you have not yet mailed your letter to me, address it to this Psychological - Warfare - Branch address, rather than to the 1st Mobile. - I don't know if I have pointed out, and emphasized, already that there is absolutely no reason to worry about me: I am quite safe - much safer indeed than you are when you drive to Beverly Hills and don't make a full stop before crossing Sunset Boulevard..... All my love. I am looking forward to "le plaisir de vous lire."
