THE UNIV. OF TOLEDO LIBRARIES

March 4, 1942

Dear Miss Gould,

Matters look a little gloomy just now as far as the magazine is concerned.

They may pick up again; for negotiations keep pending. However, for the time being...

There will be no March issue.

So sorry.

(But what makes you think that I am no longer interested in hearing from you? I like the way you write, whether it's fiction or chat. It's only that I am always busy and sometimes worried to boot.)

(Stefan Zweig's death, gruesomely unexpected, was quite a blow. I knew him for more than ten years.)

Yours,

Klaus Mann
