CABLE ADDRESS - MUSCHENHEIM - NEW YORK

Hotel Astor
TIMES SQUARE
New York

FRED'K. A. MUSCHENHEIM

Lieber Joseph Brown - Tausend Dank, das ist so lieb von Ihnen - nun haben Sie uns den Gebirgs gettet!
Ihre

Ernst und Klara

Dearest of all Joseph's, - how stupid and really painful ^{to have missed} you in Berlin! ^{Didn't} Haven't you stay in the Adlon? He tried to find you out there, but without any more success. And now you are back? And will not return so funny old Germany in this very next time? He just spoke about your City New York, wishing to go there again suddenly, - but first we have to become most famous rich and great here, - Klaus is writing a new novel about Alexander and Erika is going to play in this quite stupid and fat Franksprint.

How are you and how is Gallentine? you all are ^{spoken about} in our crazy travelling-book "Thimblebum", which is going to appear in January in S. Fisher's edition. I please forget this unbelievable bad English immediately after having seen it, - we are so sorry about it! —

All our wishes and greetings, - how are all your cunning ladies?
Have you got our other one for each day?

He remains yours goodhearted and love-full

Erika and Klaus.
