1) Will - as far as I... : certainly would not like and - what's more important,
... Very interesting stimulating... You must know see that but don't... / most German would not.

Confusion among Germans - not merely for ideological reasons.

Realize: Stalin gaining...

[Saying: Stalin won the war... Exaggerated.]

Finland - popular with Germans.

Helped to liberate her, 1944.

[Saw... Petrus is calling you... "still in my ears..."]

St. Hitler at St.'s mercy.

Anecdote. Hitler doomed.
Knows it.

Consequently: the alternative not Hitler / Allies -

Not:

Allies / Chaos.

Albany -
Sped.

(Dec. 30.)

2.) And if Hitler wins?

Another Verzailer & ... Apprehension
— in Germany, and not only ALW — Neither mild nor more severe

People understand:

New Organization bound to come.

Something in the Air ...

Paper in Istanbul. After having photom and mis mixed so many varied ideas — conservative, revolutionary etc. —

now:

The Idea of Pan-European

However: Symptom.

Proven: — it is "in the air."

MACADAM BOND

3) Utterance of varied English
and French leaders — : Chamberlain, Halifax, Daladier... Partly propaganda, of course. Not entirely so. — People, man in the street, want some attractive aim.

"To smash Hitlerism" — obviously necessary; but not enough. No solution.

Winners, too, must be willing to sacrifice some privileges, for the sake of lasting Peace.

Harold Nicolson: "This country (Britain), when the time comes,
will be prepared to make great sacrifices for a stable peace."

4) In the same article:

"From this war there must emerge some sort of world-federation, a new world-order as yet undreamed of."

It is folly to urge Americans to join us in waging war; it is not folly to invite them to cooperate in thinking about the eventual peace."

Plenty to think about!!!
Many problems involved.
Most delicate and urgent problem:

Germany's rôle and function

MACADAM BOND

5) For I believe — this is not a war to ruin
Germany but to save Europe — which means:
to bring Germany back to Europe.

... " for the Living Body of Germany " ...

Will German grasp?

On the bloody desk —
until the military disaster will force them to understand?

— The problem is not:

Will Resolution come?

Back to Wilm ... Hitler won't demand.

Democratic Germany for peaceful Europe.
Depends on the Germans.
