To,
Veterans Bonus Bureau

RE: 32697270

Dear Sirs,

According to your communication of October 15, 1948, my application for payment of the veteran's bonus has been rejected for the reason that I was "not a resident of New York State at the time of making application for the bonus."

May I take the liberty to point out to you that this reason is based on a mistake. I actually was "a resident of New York State" -- in fact, I was right here in New York City, when filing my original application, on August 16, 1948. Several weeks later, I received from your office a set of additional questions which I answered in writing from Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

As I am now in New York City again -- the very place from where I mailed my original application --, I trust the Commissioner will promptly reopen my case and reconsider my claim for a Veteran's Bonus of $ 250.

Sincerely,

Klaus Mann
