Dear Miss Bella Fromm,

This is to ask you a favour which, I hope, will not be too much of a nuisance to you.

What I want is just an autographed copy of your book - for a good purpose, of course.

The point of the matter is that I have volunteered to appear, as a representative of this Post, at a few War-Bond rallies to be held in this part of the country, and to auction, as a special attraction, autographed books and pictures of noted writers, actors, and musicians. Some chairmen of some committees here seem to think that this might prove a fairly effective device to stimulate "business."

May I count on your kindness

And: the sooner, the better! As usual in this army, everything has to be arranged at the very last moment,
in a mad kind of rush....

T H A N K S

With my best regards,

Cordially yours,

Klaus
Mann
