Michael dear :

thanks a lot for your letters; the one I found at the boat, and the other one which reached me here. It was a sweet idea to give me a welcome, in this way. Last year, you were at the pear... It seems to me that is ages ago, or eysterday... I could need your "welcome", having a rather hard time, to come again over this "taking"-stuff... Silley enough, terrible enough: I restarted it, in spite of Curtiss' struggle against it, in spite of my own very definit decision, n o t to begin ^{it} again. C'est plus fort que moi... Now, I am making a sort of "cure", with the help of Erika and of ^{Dr} Doctor Gumpert. But, of course, that is a b s u l u t l y "ne^{on}tre nous", you want speak to a s i n g l e person about that. Unfortunately, it makes my life somehow difficult, at the moment...

Besides of that, everything is all righth, more or less. Many people, like always here. My new agent, Feakins, is much better, much more serious than this ~~Miss~~ Brandes-women was. He ~~arranged~~ arranged a great "tour" already: beginning in Buffalo, the 12th. of October. I ^{shall} ~~will~~ lecture at least in ten different places, and I have the intention

"Visit the New York World's Fair 1939 - May to November" to spend a certain time in Hollywood, after the tour.

 Then, I have a idea for a book, just for the American public (not to be published in German) a sort of cultural "Guide" through Europe - the same type as Gunther's "Inside Europe", only "cultural", not political.
 (But ^{that} is "entre nous", also.) Erika is busy, too
 - with her children book, with her show, which was a success at the country. (Now, the producer is looking for the money he needs in order to open here, at New York...) - But I am speaking about us. What are you doing, Micheal? How are you spending your time? Sometimes I am thinking it would be so much better to be with you, in Finland - a country I am so very fond of...
 Write me, please, how long you expect to stay over there.
 Maybe, I will come and meet you, in Peccala... in a way,
 I would prefer it to Sils. Please, let me know how long you may stay!! And give all my love to Hans, and to Ingrid, too, if she is there. I am thinking at all of you with a true friendship... And do write me again! I shall do the same!

Amaly

Yours

KLAUS

The old Bedford is all the same.
 Mr. Nögel is as fat as he used to be, and Mr. Rön is as busy and as excited.
