Mr .
Leighton Rollins
The Rollins Studio
East Hampton, Long Island, N.Y.

My dear Mr .Rollins:

I thank you very much for your kind letter of April 10th and the flattering invitation to participate in your luncheon for the benefit of your scholarship fund. I would have loved to come, particularly after having learned from your letter and your catalogue something about the principles and courses of your "Studio" of which, I think, you can really be proud. Unfortunately, however, I shall not be in this country on May 16th. After the close of my lecture tour, which will be on May 9, I have got to go immediately to Europe where a heap of research work for my new book is waiting for me.

Thanking you again for your kind invitation, and with all of my best wishes for a full success of your undertaking, I am very sincerely yours,

Erika Mann
