Dear Sirs, -

this is just urgently to ask you to return as soon as possible the two photos as well as the two cuttings put at your disposal by my secretary. In all these instances the prints surrendered to you were the only ones in my possession which is why I can't afford to lose them.

As for the photos I do hope that you have used the one with the dog. The shot was taken at exactly the time when I started to work on "Die Zugvögel" and is infinitely more suitable than the other snapshot which was made much later. and is showing me in a mood too serious as to be appealing to children.

With best regards

yours very sincerely,
