April 27th 1964

Dear Miss Gess, --

many thanks for your letter of April 22nd. My trip has now been neatly arranged by Swissair. I shall be travelling by helicopter from London Airport and arriving at or near Headington at about 16 h your time on May 18th. Swissair is also to arrange for my taxi to Nuffield.

I am in high spirits concerning my chances to get a private phone. As stated before, this will mean a very great deal to me. Thanks ever so much for your negotiations with the Telephone Manager.

Incidentally, I wonder whether there is a pool ("Gehbad") attached to your centre in which patients may walk with their weight reduced to practically nothing at a post-operative stage when a certain amount of exercise has become advisable but when hardly any weight must yet be put on the leg in question. I merely ask because I should have to take my bathing suit etc. along if such a pool were available at Nuffield.

As for my mother's accomodation, I should be much obliged if you'd reserve a room - let's hope with bath or at least with private toilet - at the Randolph Hotel. Perhaps you'd kindly let me know just what you have succeeded in getting. A bath would, of course, be quite essential to the old lady. The reservation should be made for Mrs. Thomas Mann.

With kindest regards
yours very sincerely,

Miss J. M. Gess
