Dear Mr. Spierdijk,-

many thanks for your kind letter, as well as for those two copies of "De Telegraaf". I think a very fine job has been done with that "T.M."-page - both from the literary and the pictorial and graphic point of view. My father, too, was delighted with it and wants me to convey his gratitude.

We are scheduled to arrive in Amsterdam on June 30th (quite late in the evening, no earlier plane flying that route) and have reserved rooms at the Amstel. So if you'd care to send your check there, I would be sure to receive it and I am equally certain to spend the money while in Holland.

With renewed thanks for all your interest and friendliness, yours very sincerely

ERIKA MANN

P.S. I was particularly pleased to note that your version of my piece included most (if not all?) of the things which I had for purely technical reasons "Du" had had to cut.
