Dear Muriel, -

my mother who is not at all well (thrombosis plus bronchitis) has been very moved by your letter and asked me to thank you most cordially.

As it happens, I control all of Klaus' rights and shall be delighted to have Kraus Reprint Corporation republish the entire file of DECISION. Klaus, I am certain, would be very pleased.

Every now and then I re-read your beautiful tribute in the "Gedächtnisbuch". Also, thinking back of Klaus' life before he went into the army, I keep remembering that - apart from "Tomski" - you were his one true friend and pillar in those fateful times which left their mark on him for ever.

Please, dearest Muriel, be good enough to make the necessary agreement with the Kraus-people. I shall be agreeable to all arrangements you may see fit to make.

I think you may be glad to know that Klaus' books - even some of the very early ones - are having quite a renaissance in Germany. I succeeded in placing most of what is really good with a decent publisher and hope to have a volume of essays and another of letters ready two years from now. I wonder whether you kept K.'s letters? If so would you be so kind as to let me have them - "photostated"? Needless to say the publishers will take care of all expenses. Besides, if you happen to know of other friends who might have good and personal letters, would you ask them to do likewise? Many thanks in advance.

With all my best wishes
yours as ever devotedly,
