Dearest Fürstin, -

I am very glad, nay, happy to have your good letter and to know that you remain your old lively and charming self inspite of that detestable arthritis. Besides, I feel certain that you keep being extremely busy which is really the only medecine.

I have just returned from Wildbad Kreuth, a mountain spa in Upper Bavaria that is actually no spa but one single and lovely hunting castle still belonging to the Wittelsbach and located in the midst of a delightful forest with a lot of lawn in between, excellent food, service and medical care,- an ideal place for resting and recovering. The cure has done a great deal for me and I am finally beginning to feel much better. So whereas I had not for some time done a great deal of work - just trifles -, I hope now to embark on something substantial.

My mother spent three or four weeks with Elisabeth ("Medi") in Forte and then went to Munich for Frido's wedding. Frido suddenly stopped studying music a couple of years ago, converted to the Roman Catholic faith and is now a very successfull student of theolgy. At the University he met Christine Heisenberg, daughter of the Nobel physicist, and got himself engaged to her. The girl was to become a protestant theologist but converted to Frido's faith. The whole thing would have amused T. M., don't you think ?

Golo, a bloke who can't say no to anyone under any circumstances keeps writing articles and giving lectures all over Europe instead of writing the big book on Wallenstein which he is determined to produce. Even so he has made quite a name for himself and is very successful. "Mielein" is doing fine considering...

I had of course read about Kay's taking over half of the European Trib. Yes, she is quite a gal and cordially to be admired. What a pity, though about the New York edition. This crazy world is getting poorer by the hour. Thank God, there is still the moon.

Yours as ever devotedly,
