Dear Ag, -

I am somewhat worried at the thought that your health might not be quite what it ought to be. At any rate, I don't seem to have heard from you for a very long time, and while I know that you are always extremely busy, that health-thought is keeping me anxious.

Just now I am working on the annotation regarding Eugene. And it so happens, that my old "Who is Who" fails to mention all of Eugene's later appointments and major jobs, whereas my new "Who is Who" doesn't mention anyone who is no longer among us.

Would you therefore be so very kind to ask your secretary to send me a very brief curriculum vitae of Eugene's, - a near digest of his major occupations including the data concerned and also the years of his birth and death. Fortunately your own curriculum is quite complete and I don't think I need any complement.

Yesterday I sent you the little Wagner-anthology and hope you'll enjoy it. .

The more I am working on volume II of the T.M.-letters, the more I grow convinced that his letters to you will create an enormous sensation. I am really looking forward to publication day.

Sometime ago and much to my delight I received Flo's photo-book a truly lovely and beautiful piece of photographic art. I feel certain that you had it sent to me, but the actual "sender" reads Homolka, and I don't know whom to thank. Probably, one of the boys acted according to your instructions - but who, exactly, was it? I should like to thank him personally.

Do take care of yourself, dear Ag.

I am always and with my very best wishes
yours devotedly,
