Mr. Peter Lindamoot
14 East 10th Street
New York 3, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Lindamoot:

I know from Klaus that you were a close friend of his in Psychological Warfare in Africa and Italy, and I owe your address to Peter Viereck.

Querido Publishers in Amsterdam are about to publish a volume in memory of Klaus which is to come out on or about May 21st (the first anniversary of his death). About 30 of K's writing friends in a number of countries have contributed to the book. I am sorry that your name occurred to me at this late hour, but feel confident that your journalistic training will make it possible for you to write - if you so desire - a short piece within no time. Say whatever you please. But since you and perhaps John Willig who was with K. on Stars and Stripes would be the only fellow soldiers of Klaus to be represented in the book, I personally would think it most desirable if you'd put down a few memories typical of Klaus as a "soldier".

Would you send your piece of which I sincerely hope that it will come into existence, directly and by airmail to Dr. Rudolf Hirsch, Querido Publishers, 262 Singel, Amsterdam, Holland? If you'd let me have a copy I should be all the more grateful. Incidentally, one or two pages will be just as welcome as six or eight.

With best wishes,

Yours very sincerely

Erika Mann.
