Dear Sir.

May I not remind you of my letter of February 24 in which I asked for your permission to include a very limited number of Thomas Mann's letters to Arnold Schoenberg in my second volume of collected letters by Thomas Mann.

I've long since heard from Mrs. Schoenberg who not only very kindly agreed to my plan but who also informed me that she had written to the Library accordingly.

As there aren't many letters by T. M. to Schoenberg in existence, the procedure wouldn't cause you any technical difficulty. To have those few letters reproduced (photostatically) and to airmail the photostats to me would cause you very little trouble indeed. Let me take the liberty, therefore, once again to call the matter to your attention and once again to beg of you that no further time should be permitted to be lost. Though small in number, I consider the Schoenberg letters an essential part of the volume and cannot proceed properly to compose the book unless I've seen the Schoenberg letters.

With many thanks in advance yours very sincerely,

PS. Perhaps I'd better also remind you of the PS. to my letter of February 24. I should be most appreciative if you acceded to that request as well.
