Mr. Robert Lehman,
Lehmann Brothers
1 William Street
New York City

Dear Mr. Lehman,-

My grand-father, Professor Alfred Pringsheim of Munich, has sent me the third volume of the catalogue of his collection of Majolicas. He wrote me at the same time that you are much interested in this collection and ^{that} it is at present possible to get it out of Germany. Since, however, this third volume is not printed, but exists only in one single handpainted copy, my grand-father has asked me to give it personally into your hands and not entrust it either through the mails or through a third person.

Would you be so kind to give me a telephon-call to tell me whether you are still interested? My name is Erika Mann,- I am the daughter of the writer Thomas Mann and you can inform yourself about me through Mr. James Rosenberg.

I should be very grateful to you if you would give this matter your rapid attention and would greatly welcome an opportunity of making your acquaintance.

Yours very sincerely

Erika Mann.
