Dear Mrs. Lancaster, -

I am very much ashamed of myself. But then I had hoped not merely to thank you most cordially for your kindness in letting me have Brian's original typescript but also to enclose those "few paragraphs" which I planned - and keep planning for your book.

Somehow I felt quite incapable of the job. Nor should I blame that failure entirely on my illness. There is such an overwhelming lot to be said about Brian and about our friendship with him; besides I haven't written anything in English for the past 14 years and you'd say whether I shouldn't rather compose whatever I can in German (S b l Bedford, I feel certain wouldn't mind translating it for us). Mainly, however, let me ask you about your deadline. Once I know just when exactly I have to send you my very small contribution, I shall be on time. With

With my renewed thanks

yours very sincerely,
