Mr. Robert M.W. Kempner

Lansdowne, Pa.

Dear Dr. Kempner:

Many thanks for your letter and for the trouble you took in an effort to clarify my "affair". I have written to my lawyer, Mr. Victor Jacobs (Galef & Jacobs, New York) who specializes in immigration matters and in whom I have a great deal of confidence. Should he fail to obtain for me the "official information" of which you rightly say that I must have it, I should gladly take your advice and get in contact with Telford Taylor.

All this is most annoying, most ridiculous, and also a little alarming. There are too many crazy people around. All the greater the pleasure to receive a communication as helpful and reasonable as yours. Thanks again.

Let me take this occasion to tell you how much I enjoyed your articles in "Aufbau". My father, too, has read your pieces with the greatest interest.

Should anything come up that I might wish to ask you about, I should not hesitate to accept your offer and approach you again.

With kindest personal regards,

Yours very sincerely

Erika Mann.
