Miss Anna Kallin
Third Programme
BBC
Broadcasting House
London, England

Dear Miss Kallin:

My father's Third Programme-broadcast memorializing GBS was scheduled to go out on December 19th. While he was originally supposed to record his speech on December 9th, he was prevented by a fairly bad intestinal flu ~~from~~ ^{for} functioning that day. On December 11th, still weak and reduced, he managed. The record was mailed, and he was assured by the gentleman in charge that it would still reach London in time to be broadcast as planned.

Nothing has been heard since - either from your Hollywood-^{or} your New York-representative, or ^{from} yourself. Naturally, T.M. not only wonders what happened, but is also somewhat worried and disappointed. He felt that one might at least have let him know whether and when his address was released, and how it ~~was~~ ^{wasn't} received. Since the Christmas holidays and the New Year's celebrations followed his broadcast, he did not particularly mind being without news, up to recently. However, by now - January 6th - he cannot help being somewhat disquieted. Would you kindly let me know what happened?

As ever, with every good wish

Yours cordially

Erika Mann.
