(Very) Dear Mr. Jacobs.

Both your kind letters were duly received, - if with some understandable delay. Thanks ever so much, ever so affectionately!

Of course, you are authorized to re-approach the gentlemen in question. I talked the matter over with my parents, and they quite agree that this ludicrous thing had better be cleared up once and for all. (But then, who wants to look for clarity in a swamp? Unless someone turns up to reclaim the latter our hopes remain of the dimmest.)

As for the disastrous consequences of my "letter of renunciation" - which, incidentally, I am increasingly glad to have written -, said document would seem to have been equipped with all the trappings of a super time bomb. When was it that I composed the paper? Surely, two furloughs have been granted since. On a sudden, however, there is that nauseating explosion.

Oh, - well.....

Thanks again for your friendship which, believe me, I value most highly. And all the best to you.

Yours, E. M.

P.S. My Zuerich address remains valid!
