December 8, 1963

Dear Mr. Ewen, -

thank you very much for your kind letter of November 26th. But there is no need for you at all to be "concerned", there has been no misunderstanding, and everything is quite alright. The one little thing I hadn't seen clear about was that advance of $ 85 which I thought you had offered. But I had not been cross about that either and never for one moment felt that you were trying "to take advantage". Both my mother and myself feel, as we felt last summer, that you are serious about the undertaking and that your past experience in the theatre, as well as your competence in matters German justify our confidence in you.

I am sure Kay Brown will be quick in finalizing the proposed arrangement.

Let me take this opportunity to wish you and Mrs. Ewen the very best for Christmas and that clouded 1964.

Sincerely yours,
