Dear Dr. Egri, -

thank you very much for sending "James Joyce and Thomas Mann: Decadence and Modernity". The book looks very impressive, and I am confident that it will contribute substantially to the existent literature on T. M.

Somehow - mistakenly ? - I was under the impression that I had seen the work before and that I told you how grateful the T.M.-Archives would be for this most welcome addition to their treasures. Never mind.

With all best wishes

very sincerely yours,

PS. My mother, also very pleased with the volume, asks to be remembered to you.

and health.

As for this most welcome acquisition to your library - I feel you will be glad to see the L.M. - volumes which present to you I may say the work before and that of tomorrow - mistakenly I - I was under the impression of the fact on L.M.
