Gogoi!

October 10, 1967

Dear Gogoi, -

many thanks and much love. But what a saddening mess - that thing about the car. While the repair job is bound to be far more expensive, I am sending a bit of "Trinkgeld" anyway which might help. Of course I shall keep utterly quiet in this secret context. Mielein seems to be having a nice time in Orinda, but planned to fly to Santa Barbara tomorrow. I cabled Golo's and my advice to stay a few more days with the Bibis but doubt that she will take it.

Was very glad to hear that you are trying to feel less pessimistic. Things in general look so lousy that one really should attempt to make the very best of all matters personal. Said auntie, the wisest of birds.

So long now and all thats pleasing.
