Dear Nevill Coghill, -

for a variety of reasons which would be too combersome to go into I left Oxford so suddenly that I had no chance to get in touch with you and to return "Meditations on a Hobby Horse". I found Gombrich's book most enlightening, amusing, and refreshing. Nor do I seem to remember any book on the theory of art which could be compared to the "Hobby Horse" as for liveliness, spontaneity, and style. Thanks very much for letting me have it.

Our meeting was all too brief. Let me hope that we shall have an opportunity to renew it.

What with your horrid postal strike I have of course no idea of when this will reach you. Eventually, I trust, it will.

Many regards and thanks for your great kindness.

Yours cordially,
