Uomo

Darling Moura, -

the book I praisingly talked about is called "The Accidental President", its author is Robert Sherrill and it was published by Grossman Publishers, New York 1967. Though - in parts - it makes very dull reading, anyone who wishes to know all about Johnson ought to read it. And most unfortunately, we all had better know about that repulsive and frighteningly dangerous monster. Look at him now. The US has guaranteed the gulf of Aqaba and the Strait of Tiran, - yet Johnson is sitting tight. Of course, it is perfectly in order for the Russians to jam a "receipt" for Vietnam down the Americans' throat. - but that this should be done by murdering Israel couldn't possibly be permitted. Should nr. III be upon us, Hitler might yet be heard screaming "an allem sind die Juden schuld". What a mess.

It has been absolutely lovely to see you, and I only wish geography didn't exist. There is so much we should be talking about and I deem it downright silly and also preposterous that we are forced to live such separate lives.
