Dear Kay, -

your check in the amount of $ 4,500.00 arrived amazingly speedily. Thank you very much.

In the meantime you'll have received my minor questionnaire and I am looking forward to your answer.

Incidentally, I meant to ask you for quite some time whether AFA didn't have a cable address. It seems such a waste always to have to cable the whole works when - most probably - there would be a word or two that could be used instead.

I am glad that you'll stay on until March 15 and even more glad that your husband's health has been steadily improving. My own state of affairs is still very tiresome. Nor am I "a very gallant lady" but rather furious by now.

Yours as ever affectionately,
