Dear Kay,

I do wish to apologize and should be more than ashamed of myself for having been so tardy. But then, I have been rather seriously ill ever since the beginning of April, am still at the clinic and while I am working like a devil, my whole correspondence has gone to pieces.

Even so, I managed to do a few things. For instance, I got my mother to sign and initial those 5 copies of the contract regarding "Krull". I also got Mr. Abich on the phone and talked him into agreeing to the renewal of the Exhibit regarding the rights to use the German screenplay. But nothing at all was heard from Mr. Fernbach which is all the more regrettable, as I am expecting Mr. Abich to visit with me on September 7th, - when I could certainly make him sign the paper in question. So, please, tell Mr. Fernbach to make haste and let me have whatever he wants to get signed. After all it would be only fair if the deal would be closed, now that the signed contracts have been in the hands of Mr. Fernbach for almost a month.

Enclosed find copy of my letter to Mr. Richard Barovick. And, once again, I am terribly sorry about the delay I caused in this context.

Let me hope that you are quite happy in your new position, although the enforced ~~application~~ of glorious old MCA is and remains a grave pity.

Yours as ever
cordially,

ERIKA MANN
