"CONFESSIONS OF FELIX KRULL"

Dear Miss Brown:

Many thanks for your charming letters. But Mr. Hellmann, poor dear, hasn't just "lost his voice" but is still said to be suffering from a vicious sort of angina which is both, contagious and voice-robbing. Also, he is said to be running a high temperature.

All the worse for him. As far as we are concerned, it doesn't really matter. Needless to say we sympathize deeply with the patient without, however, deeming the entire OMNIA-problem important.

After having discussed ^{it} with Dr. Kaestlin who came down from the mountains for the weekend, the ESTATE are now ready without any further ado to sign an undertaking according to which the existing "Krull"-film shall not be shown anywhere on earth after June 30th, 1965. This may or may not mean that the Estate should eventually have to pay a small amount to OMNIA - if, that is, OMNIA were then able to prove that the existing film were still doing any business. I doubt very much that it will. And at any rate, Mr. Bloomgarden will be safeguarded against each and every extension of the licences held at present by OMNIA.

Let me hope that the undertaking offered above will eliminate the last obstacle still barring a final agreement with Mr. Bloomgarden.

In the meantime and in the mountains Dr. Kaestlin keeps studying the contract sketched by Mr. Rubinstein. As soon as I have his opinion on said document I shall get in touch with you again.

With best personal regards,
yours very sincerely,

Copy to Dr. Kaestlin
