Dear Mrs. Brodie, -

thanks very much for your kind and understanding letter of February 20th. And when I say "understanding" I mean - in your case - far more than the word itself would seem to imply. You do understand T.M. - even in English.

Actually, I must have seen my father's letter to you of June 28th 1955. And I should have included it in volume III of the Letters, had it not been for the fact that there were no other English letters I wished to "admit" and that it would have seemed too odd to have one solitary such letter turn up in the volume. Even so I am grateful for the photostat.

With kindest wishes

sincerely yours,
