Nightletter

Mr. Francis Biddle
Attorney General
Washington D. C.

Dear Mr. Biddle : Mrs. Pinza informs me that her husband's case is awaiting your decision. since I have known Mr. Pinza for six years, I take the liberty of making the following statement: Mr. Pinza ~~is not~~ ^{is} not what I would ever call a potentially dangerous enemy alien. while we often disagreed when discussing the political situation, he never caused me to suspect him of antidemocratic activities or feelings. ~~had~~ ^{if} had been otherwise I certainly would have ceased to see him which I trust you will believe considering my own militantly antifascist attitude. will you therefor please forgive me for appealing to you on behalf of a great artist whom I consider an innocuous man and whose American family and career would be ruined if an adverse decision should be reached. believe me dear Mr. Biddle
yours very sincerely
