Dear Mr. Berman, -

remember me ? I'd be rather sad and a little cross if you didn't.

However, be it as it may, I am furiously busy editing a large selection (3 volumes) of my father's letters and have just come across your name. In 1941 he wrote to Louis B. Mayer in an effort to get the contracts of a number of refugee authors renewed - among them Alfred Polgar. In mentioning the latter he says that you'd be willing warmly to recommend him on account of his gift for writing amusing dialogues.

None of which is my present concern. I am writing because I hope you'll be kind enough to furnish me with a few data regarding yourself for my annotations. Just year of birth and the titles of what you consider to be your best plays, as well as the dates of their respective production.

With kindest regards and all best wishes
yours cordially,
