Dear Leonard, -

how sweet of you and Maggie to remember that lovely pen and actually to send it! I was delighted when the precious parcel arrived and am now anxiously waiting for the friends with whom I am staying here to drive to Bavarian Garmisch just across the border where Parker ink may be purchased whereas the needed liquid is not available in Austria.

Thanks awfully. And thanks also for your kindly wishes. May they not go unheeded by those above us, for I can truly do with heaps of wellwishing. For that stupid foot of mine eventually proved to represent a mere symptom, and my true complaint concerns every bone and muscle of which I am - or should be - in command. In order to get the right treatment I spent seven weeks in Vienna and upon doctor's orders interrupted my stay there to ~~then~~ recover from same treatment and to return to it by the end of January. What a silly mess.

All the very best to both of you. Once I have tried my "sixtyone" I should probably feel like writing you again.

Yours as ever cordially:

PS. Your address being filed in Kilchberg, I shall have to send this on to Switzerland whence it'll be forwarded at once.
