Dear Leonard, -

while trying to create some sort of order in what remains of the avalanche of letters I received late in August, in September and October of 1955, I find your note of October 10th. Please understand that I kept these communications because I did not wish to send printed cards in reply and always hoped one day to be able to cope with that correspondence.

Well, at last your sympathetic lines have once again come to my attention; let me wish that it be not too late for me to thank you, although my thanks are by now more than two years overdue.

What mainly caused me to write you after all, was your news that you were travelling (you and Maggie) a great deal in Europe. Are you still keeping up that laudable habit? If so and if you ever hit Switzerland on your tours - please do call us (tell 91 46 66). We should love to see you and finally to meet Mrs. Amster.

Remember the evening when the Zeppelin burnt? I shall never forget it.

Are you still a Literary Agent, I wonder? I am working in the films a great deal, though almost exclusively concerning one or the other movie-adaptation of one of my father's novels. Probably, you have seen FELIX KRULL and even more probably, you disliked it heartily. Even so, I consider it rather a success - not only or ~~mainly~~ mainly from the financial point of view (the film is doing exceedingly well!) but also and above all because "Felix" was so excellent. Had you known that I was the parrot's voice in Professor Kuckucks home, you would, no doubt, have derived far more pleasure from it all. Oh, well...

Kindest regards, dear Leonard, and best wishes to Mrs. Amster

from ever yours
