Chéri,-

my Tomsy being convinced that nothing could be done about stiff stuffy old Trib, I talked the case over with Jeanet who promised sacredly to take the necessary step. As European bureau chief she is grad in der richtigen Groesse and her letter, I feel confident, will make a fairly swellish impressi on.

You will be glad to know that I invested all I had in the kind of Gickerlinge which might have done aunt Olga some good, but which - in our parts - are not worth one single bloody cent. That's precisely what happens if mice like myself engage in business. Worse things have happened, but this is not a good one, or is it?

Planes to Munich have been groundded for two days - so I am still here and ~~may~~ have to leave by car.

That's all folks. I enjoyed the re-union, even though there were definitely too many people and the fare, well evening depressed me quite considerably. It might be that the moment was no altogteher well chosen (on your part, I mean). Perhaps, it was, though and I deserve nothing but reproaches.

At any rate yours lovingly

Scis
E.
